Conferences at Peppers Clearwater

This picture perfect conference destination lets guests experience the grandeur of New Zealand's South Island landscape on a 465-acre property mere minutes away from the city of Christchurch.

There is a languid elegance about Peppers Clearwater Resort that is immediately relaxing. Reflections off the glassy waters of Lake Kaikainui, the Championship golf course and distant Southern Alps provide spectacular views from suites and meeting rooms.

State of the art facilities can be optioned endlessly for conferences, corporate retreats, meetings, team events, seminars, groups and launches of up to 240 guests, theatre-style.

What makes this resort a standout, aside from its estate acreage so close to the city, is the unique range of experiences on offer. There's golf, rugby, fly-fishing, boating, hiking or simply meandering through the resort's botanical class gardens, to name just a few. And for the gourmet delegate, the indulgent food experiences are endless. Cocktails on the terrace overlooking the 18th hole, gourmet banquets, simple working lunches, intimate picnic hampers, fine dining or a degustation feast of the best of the region's produce in the renowned Lakes Restaurant. Every tastebud satisfied. Every event unforgettable.
