Conferences at Peppers Clearwater

This picture perfect conference destination lets guests experience the grandeur of New Zealand's South Island landscape on a 465-acre property mere minutes away from the city of Christchurch.

There is a languid elegance about Peppers Clearwater Resort that is immediately relaxing. Reflections off the glassy waters of Lake Kaikainui, the Championship golf course and distant Southern Alps provide spectacular views from suites and meeting rooms.

State of the art facilities can be optioned endlessly for conferences, corporate retreats, meetings, team events, seminars, groups and lunches of up to 150 guests, theatre-style.

What makes this resort a standout, aside from its estate acreage so close to the city, is the unique range of experiences on offer.

There's golf, helicopter scenic flights, fly-fishing, boating, hiking or simply meandering through the resort's trails, to enjoy the native plants along the natural streams; to name just a few. For the gourmet delegate, the indulgent food experiences are endless; simple working lunches, contemporary canapé and platter options, or relaxed à la carte featuring the best of the region's produce in Lume, the resort's newly refurbished restaurant. At Peppers Clearwater Resort, every experience is unforgettable.
